

A green beaded necklace with two dog tags attached. The necklace is made of small, round, light green beads. The dog tags are also light green with a darker green border. One tag is positioned above the other, and both are attached to the necklace with small metal rings.

"For people going into AmeriCorps, being placed at a site that matches their interests is the most pivotal point, as it made the whole experience for me three million times better—got so much out of my service."
