

"We help people build life skills moving them from poverty to prosperity—help them get housing, get associates degrees, manage checking accounts, establish work history, maintain a job."